As girls reach each instant reward level during the 2022 Girl Scout Cookie Program, they receive the reward item from their troop cookie program coordinator (TCPC) right away—no waiting necessary! And this year, that's not all! Troops can also earn the 2022 Super patch by completing a Cookie Bingo or by creating and setting their own guidelines! ## Frequently Asked Questions

- When does a girl earn the reward? A girl has reached reward levels once her family picks up cookies from her troop. Most troops do not allow families to return cookies, so they are essentially “sold” once they are picked up. TCPCs should distribute instant rewards to girls as soon as possible once cookies are picked up or shipped orders placed. Those rewards are meant to be truly instant to motivate girls and increase excitement!
- How should I distribute the reward items to girls? Girls love to be recognized at meetings in front of their peers. Plan the first five minutes of each meeting January through March to congratulate girls on their achievement and pass out instant rewards.
- Will I be responsible for management of the instant rewards for my troop? TCPC will be responsible for this inventory of instant rewards. At training you will receive a reusable tote to carry these rewards and program materials. TCPCs can track via eBudde which girls have earned which reward items.
- Do I need to return rewards not earned by girls? Yes, please return any instant rewards not earned by girls back to any GSOH service center or GSOH staff member at the end of the 2022 cookie program.
- Have other questions? Our Customer Care team is ready to help answer your questions! Reach us at 800-621-7042 or customercare@gsoh.org.

2022 Super Patch

Your troop will work on their decision-making skills while deciding how to individually earn the 2022 Super patch. They can choose to have each Girl Scout complete a Cookie Bingo (Option 1) or to create their own guidelines (Option 2) - each girl will receive her patch as soon as she earns it!

TCPCs receive Super patches for their troops with their instant rewards at the beginning of the program.
