

COMMUNITY QUEST

• DRESDEN/TRINWAY/FRAZEYSBURG •

Be sure to follow all social distancing policies while completing this activity

Humble Heart

If your Heart is Humble you may see an American Flag in an unusual place. Take a picture of your group with the flag.

London Bridge

Unlike the London Bridge, this famous bridge built in 1914 is still standing, but it is no longer usable. Take a picture of your group with the bridge in the background.

Old School

This building has been used for many things, but it was originally a school. Take a picture of the oldest person in your group in front of the Union School built in 1882.

Yogi Bear's Picnic Basket

Yogi Bear would have trouble running away with this house-size picnic basket. Take a picture of your group in front of the basket.

This Eagle Can't Fly

Take a picture of yourself with a Bronze Eagle. Pretend you are flying since this one cannot soar.

First Responders

Visit the fire department in one of these communities. See if you can take a picture with a fire truck. Be sure to get permission first.

These Children Never Leave

Take a picture of the children in your group with the two kids that never move.

Take a Break

There are several painted places to rest and one even has a Scottie dog. Take a picture of your group taking a break on your favorite one.

Can You Hear the Whistle Blow?

The train depot no longer serves the railroad, but travelers used to be able to catch a train here or welcome family coming to visit. Take a picture of your group pretending to catch a train.

Always Thinking

This man never leaves his spot on the railroad track. Introduce yourself and take a picture with him.

Riddle Me This

What has a head but never weeps, has a bed but never sleeps, can run but never walks, and has a bank but no money? When you solve the riddle, take a picture with the answer.

Underground Railroad

This 29-room mansion built in 1856 served as a stop on the Underground Railroad. The history of the family and the house are quite interesting and might even include ghosts. Unless, it is open for visitors, take a group picture in front of the gates.

Out of Place

You don't usually find a railroad crossing sign in someone's front yard. Take a picture of your group with the sign in the background. Be sure to do this from across the street so that you are not trespassing.

The Riddler Strikes Again

I am full of holes but hold water. What am I? Take a picture of me with at least one of member of your team.

Wood Working Badge/Community Service Project

A Girl Scout troop built and installed this library so that people in the community would have access to one in this town. Take a picture with members of your group reading a book.

Big Bang

The military once used these to defeat their enemy. Now most are found in parks. Take a picture pretending to light the fuse.

7th Inning Stretch

Games may not be happening when you visit the sandlots. Your picture can be of the game, your group taking the field, or someone throwing out the first pitch.

Homestead

The Crawford Barn, built in 1890, was dismantled, moved and reassembled on its current site in 1998. For years, you could find people making baskets in what used to be the horse stalls. Take a picture of your group in front of the doors while pretending to ride a horse or make a basket.

Giant Apples

This basket of apples could make several apple pies if they could be reached. Take a picture of you group pretending to eat an apple.

Pizza Pizza!

There are several pizza places in the area. Take a picture in front of one of them or have lunch and take a picture with the pizza.

Leave a Place Better Than You Found It

Take a photo of yourself picking up trash and throwing it away properly.

The Riddler Returns

One sheet, two sheets, three sheets, four...Some use less, some use more. What am I? Take a picture of me.

I Scream

Take a picture of yourself eating a sweet treat while on your journey.

YOUR QUEST IS COMPLETE!