Be sure to follow all social distancing policies while completing this activity

Ohio's Center

The center of Ohio is in Centerburg. Take a group picture with the boulder that marks the center of the Buckeye state.

Ring the Bell

Take a picture pretending to ring the 1882 bell erected by the Centerburg Volunteer Fire department in 1972.

Flower Farm

Daylilies abound at this area farm. Take a picture with team members smelling the flowers.

I Scream

During your journey, stop at one of the many ice cream locations. Take a picture eating your sweet treat or just take the picture in front of the sign if you take a pass on the ice cream.

Recycled Ruins

Once the site of a glass factory, this space is now repurposed as a beautiful park. You can take a walk, catch a fish, or have a picnic. Take a picture of the members of your group who choose to climb the observation tower or take a group picture with the tower as your background.

Cooper or Copper?

On the public square in Mt. Vernon, check out the fountain that was built in the 1880s and restored over 100 years later. Take a picture of a bird lover in your group with the iron birds in the background.

Book Lovers

A paragraph is just a small part of every book. Check out this bookstore and have a group member take a picture with their favorite book. If the store is closed, take a picture with the display in the window.

These Dogs Don't Bark

Find the circle of dogs all trying to reach the golden bone. Have your youngest group member take a picture with their favorite dog.

I SPI

Science and play come together for children, but adults can explore too. Take a picture with the sign for this science place or go on in and explore to create your own picture.

Iconic Chapel

Local university students enjoy celebrating graduation and other events in this beautiful building. Take your group picture where and how you would like to showcase the chapel.

Yellow Jackets

Find something that shows the Mt. Vernon High School mascot and take a picture of your group's biggest sport's fan with it.

Horse and Buggy

If you get an opportunity, take a picture with a horse and buggy. Please respect that the Amish community do not wish to have their picture taken; just take the horse and buggy, not the people.

Coffee, Pastries and Art

This unit business in downtown Fredericktown offers painting classes and online videos when they aren't serving coffee and pastries. If you get a chance, ask the owner about her Girl Scout experience. Take a picture of at least one team member trying a tasty treat or take their picture with something artistic.

Money, Money

Take a picture of an adult in your group pretending to get money from an ATM machine.

You Have the Time?

Take a picture with all of you pretending to check your watches while standing with the clock made by Webb C. Ball in the 1900s.

Grand Bandstand

This white structure located in downtown Fredericktown has hosted small bands but is often used by people who just want to sit and relax. Take a picture of front of the structure.

Preserve the Land

Kenyon College has developed this 500-acre preserve in the Kokosing River valley. Take some time to reflect on the beauty of the area and pick a place for your special group picture.

Angels

Swedish Artist Carl Milles designed this playful sculpture on the Kenyon College campus. Taking a picture of the angels watching over the children in your group.

Water Flows Like Honey

View the 25-foot waterfall named for the stream that flows over it. Take a picture of your group with the waterfall.

High Bluffs

Picturesque views of the Kokosing River from high above make this park near Howard a fun place to stop for a break or a hike. Take a picture of some of your group looking at the river. Please stay on the trail and away from the sandstone edges. If you don't want to go to the bluffs, just take a group picture at the park's sign.

Hot Rods

Gas station turned classic car store. View the yellow 1967 Corvette and many other classic cars, even some classic Hot Wheels. Take a picture of your group's biggest car fan with their favorite car or in front of the store.

Bridge of Dreams

The 2nd longest bridge in the state of Ohio, this 370-foot structure was built in the 1920s and spans the Mohican River. Take a picture of your group on the bridge.
