

2022 Volunteer Recognitions

Dear Girl Scouts of Ohio's Heartland Volunteers,

The past few years have been difficult and have required us to prove that Girl Scout grit can get you through anything. In 2021, we entered the second year of delivering Girl Scout programming during a pandemic. Our girls learned once again that there is no stopping Girl Scouts!

In 2021 we were excited for the return of some of our favorite in-person council events and worked hard to adapt them to today's world. Day Camp came back with the theme "It's More Than S'mores," running 24 different sessions and was a huge success thanks to the help of more than 475 volunteers. While we enjoyed our in-person together time, we also continued to offer Camp in a Box for those campers who chose to participate virtually.

It was a busy year for girls as they dreamed big and made a difference in their communities. We celebrated 271 Girl Scouts who earned their Bronze Award, 65 who earned their Silver Award, and 13 exceptional Girl Scouts who earned their Gold Award. Our Gold Award Girl Scouts received a special celebration at Camp Ken-Jockey to honor all they achieved.

Thanks to all of you, Girl Scouts continues to set girls up to be the leaders of tomorrow. It's here where girl ambition shines through. Our programming gives girls opportunities to learn skills that will help them become leaders in our ever-changing world. It couldn't be done without YOU!

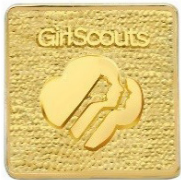

We are so grateful for everything you've done this past year.

Yours in Girl Scouting,

Tammy H. Wharton
President and CEO

Appreciation Pin

The Appreciation Pin is given to an adult member who has provided outstanding service to one or more service delivery areas.

Dessa Aldred

Muskingum Valley

Dessa is active in her service unit and is a day camp volunteer. She also assists her troop with the Girl Scout Cookie Program. She recently attended Troop Camp Certification training to allow for more experiences for her troop. Dessa cares about the experiences girls have in Girl Scouting, and continuously shows this through her actions.

Kathy Blocher

Big Walnut

Kathy has been a troop leader since 2013 and is a wonderful leader, guiding the girls as they grow and become leaders themselves. She is also a long-time volunteer with her service unit's camporee, a canoe instructor, and has planned and led many service unit activities. She is a valued member of her service unit, attending almost all their monthly meetings for more than a decade.

Rebecca (Becky) Bowling

Morrow County

Becky is a troop leader, service unit cookie program coordinator, and is on her service unit team. She is great at planning and executing meetings that encourage Girl Scouts to increase earned badges. She has helped to increase her troop size by attending and recruiting at Meet the Leader and recruitment nights and is very focused on how Girl Scouts can work with the community to be more visible and to give back in a positive way.

Stephanie Broerman

Kokosing Hills

Stephanie has gone above and beyond as a Girl Scout volunteer. When there was no troop in Fredericktown, she recruited other leaders to start a troop. In 2022, Stephanie ran a volunteer cookie cupboard out of her home. She gives so much to Girl Scouts and wants to provide wonderful experiences for all girls involved.

Rachel Brooks-Pannell

Whetstone

Rachel and her husband, Darrell, have been troop leaders for several years, in addition to being co-managers of their service unit's Fall Product Program. Rachel is also on her service unit's camporee and recruitment teams. She has been leading her service unit's efforts to ensure they are inclusive. She truly wants every girl to have the opportunity to become a Girl Scout.

Meredith Brown

Friendship Trail

Meredith is an active volunteer within her service unit as well as at day camp. She has provided over 50 different swap ideas for the girls to make and spends her own time outside of day camp coordinating and planning them. Her willingness to help plan and facilitate day camp activities shows her commitment to providing girls with a wonderful Girl Scout experience.

Kristen Caldwell

Rocky Fork

Kristen recently stepped outside of her comfort zone and became a day camp volunteer. She volunteers with multiple troops, answers questions for new volunteers, and is a true team player. She goes out of her way to make meetings fun for her troop and easy for parents. She inspires the girls to be their best selves by thinking of others, and being a part of the community.

LeAnne Carr

Big Walnut

LeAnne has served as the leader of Troop 1374 from Girl Scout Daisies through high school. She also volunteers with her service unit and is a council delegate. She is an amazing troop leader, leading and guiding girls from Girl Scout Daisies through Cadettes and now through the high school years. She is committed to the success of Girl Scouting and to the development of the next generation of leaders.

Kay Clopton

Ptanka-Rogers

Kay is a troop leader and council delegate who always attends the delegate forums and reports back to her service unit team. She is an excellent planner and executes wonderful opportunities for Cadette Girl Scouts. Kay's special interest is in media, and she has a wonderful ability to articulate the needs of the Girl Scouts in her troop and service unit.

Amber Cooper

Indian Rock

Amber is an active member of her service unit and a proud troop leader. In 2019 she was recognized with the Volunteer of Excellence Award. She has continued to do an outstanding job as a volunteer serving as her troop's fall product coordinator, service unit cookie program coordinator, and handles all troop finances. She supports her troop through outdoor adventures and encourages the girls in her troop to make decisions.

Jaime Cramer

Tri-Trails

Jaime has been a co-leader for Girl Scout Troop 5937 for the past five years and is invaluable to both her troop and service unit. Jaime is organized and ensures her troop is prepared for all activities. She attends all service unit leader meetings and is an active participant in planning service unit activities. Jaime can be counted on to always go above and beyond to help whenever asked.

Tamra (Tammy) Estep

Shelby-Shiloh-Plymouth

Tammy is a proud troop leader and service unit cookie program coordinator for her service unit. Tammy works very hard to see that every troop in the service unit has a successful cookie season. She has always had great success with girls staying with her troop, enjoying the years spent with her, and being a friend to her after they moved on. Her co-leader this year was one of her Girl Scout Seniors.

Rhonda Gebarski

Wahigan Heights

Rhonda has been a dedicated troop leader for the past six years and currently helps to manage 12 troops as a service unit manager and co-engagement coordinator. She has also been a service unit cookie program coordinator as well as a mentor to new troop leaders. Rhonda always offers virtual options for meetings that she facilitates and works hard to keep service unit events affordable or free for Girl Scouts.

Chris Griffin

Rocky Fork

Chris has done a wonderful job serving as the service unit cookie program coordinator for his troop this year. He had a direct impact on his troops ability to participate as the troop was limited with volunteers due to transitions. He took trainings, studied the cookie sales plan, and took the lead on all communications about cookie inventory, booth changes and orders. Chris went above and beyond preparing his troop's parents with cookie information.

Mary Hagans

Wal-Tus-Gum

Mary is a service unit manager and hard-working Girl Scout volunteer. She gives a lot of her time to her troop and service unit and always finds time to volunteer within the community. She recently held a volunteer cookie cupboard out of her home. Mary always goes out of her way to help others.

Heather Hargrove

Whetstone

Heather is a troop leader who often volunteers for council events. She is an incredible volunteer and it's not unusual to run into her at events such as Mega Cookie Drop, a cookie cupboard and events held at Camp Ken-Jockety. If asked to help with an event, it is highly likely that she'll say yes. Heather is a true joy and embodies the Girl Scout spirit!

Sarah Holt

Whetstone

Sarah is currently a troop leader for two Girl Scout troops. She plans, organizes and runs several service unit events, including her service unit's annual Girl Scout Grand Prix. She is quick to offer help any time her service unit needs a volunteer or help coming up with innovate and creative Girl Scout programming ideas.

Erica Hoover

Gallia

Erica has been involved in Girl Scouts for 27 years both as a girl and volunteer. Throughout those years, she has served as her service unit's service unit cookie program coordinator, a council delegate, and has helped coordinate many Girl Scout programs. She has served on the service unit recognition committee for four years, and although she is not involved directly with a troop at this time is still on the committee.

Barbara Huntwork

Shawnee Trail

Throughout her time as a Girl Scout volunteer, Barbara has served as her service unit's fall product coordinator, cookie program coordinator, service unit council delegate, and day camp coordinator among other things. Barbara goes beyond expectations in supporting new leaders that she recruits, providing mentorship as they establish their troops. Barbara is engaging, friendly, and brings to all her roles a positive attitude.

Britani Kyser

Hilliard

Britani is a troop leader for Girl Scout Troop 6204 and recently ran a volunteer cookie cupboard out of her home. She always answers questions quickly regarding cookie availability and makes herself available frequently for needed pickups. She helps people new to the Girl Scout Cookie Program navigate the system and work through any complications so they can have a successful cookie season.

Abbey Logan

Whetstone

Abbey is a co-leader for a Girl Scout Junior Troop. She also plans, organizes, and runs many service unit events including being one of the organizers for her service unit's Girl Scout Grand Prix. She and her co-leader have created lots of innovative program for their Girl Scouts and her troop is holding a virtual World Thinking Day event for Girl Scout Daisies.

Mary Marsh

Logan Valley

Mary has shown true sisterhood to every Girl Scout in many ways. She is an active day camp volunteer and inspires LIA/PAs to try new things with a positive attitude. She isn't afraid to try new things and put her amazing outdoor skills to great use! She is kind, intelligent, caring and an amazing Girl Scout leader and volunteer.

Dawn McClure

Marion County

Dawn has provided great assistance to her service unit by creating themed recruitment and events. She covers the planning and execution of all tasks for these events including running stations, collecting supplies, and recruiting volunteers to help. She uses her resources wisely when it comes to events to keep costs minimal. Her warm personality allows all girls involved in Girl Scouts to talk freely to her, encouraging them to participate.

Martha McKitrick

Bexley

Martha has been the service unit manager for Bexley since 2018. She is always looking for ways to make Girl Scouts more visible in her community and has come up with many creative activities including participating in a 4th of July parade, caroling, and Flat Juliette. She always encourages leaders to take opportunities within the council and makes it simple and easy to do so by explaining the commitment clearly and sharing her experiences.

Madison Moore

Westerville

Madison Moore is a new member of the Highest Awards Review Committee, a girl mentor and a Gold Award Girl Scout. Last year Madison volunteered to speak at the Highest Award Ceremony. Madison uses her expressive nature to motivate and energize any group she is with be it adults, girls, troop leaders or council staff. Madison's persistence is exceptional. Her vivacious perspective and ability to share her experience is compelling.

Darrell Pannell

Whetstone

Darrell is a co-manager for his service unit's fall product program, a troop volunteer, and service unit treasurer. Darrell embodies the phrase "Man Enough to be a Girl Scout." He is an active volunteer in his service unit and with his daughter's troop. He always provides whatever leadership is needed in his quiet, laid-back, and humor-filled way. Darrell is a regular fixture at service unit events and can always be found helping out.

Helen Perdue

Morrow County

Helen is her service unit's treasurer, travel mentor, new troop mentor and fall product coordinator. She will also act as co-director of their camporee this summer. Helen leads two troops and has provided invaluable information to troops in her service unit and as a mentor to new leaders. She always steps up when a volunteer is needed and gives 100% to every role.

Amanda Reuter

Whetstone

Amanda is one of the newest members of the Highest Awards Review Committee. Being new hasn't stopped her from taking on leadership positions. The committee is grateful for her fresh perspective on today's Girl Scouts in every report. She also participates with the pollinator garden at the Elam Center at Camp Ken-Jockey and is a member of the Adult Camporee Committee.

Gina Robichaux

Heart of Licking

Gina is a troop leader for a troop that currently has 26 Girl Scout Daisies and Brownies. She has volunteered often for her service unit as well as the council. She assists at multiple recruitment events and has mentored two separate troops as they got started on their Girl Scout journey. She is a great leader, motivator and inspirer who always has the best interest of Girl Scouts at heart.

Janet Rodenkirchen

Reynoldsburg

Janet is a long-time troop leader, and this year became a council delegate representing Reynoldsburg. She works hard to get her troop involved in community service opportunities, as well as volunteering for council programs. Janet also leads her troop through religious programs and awards through the Catholic Diocese. Janet has a strong desire to provide Girl Scouts with a wide variety of experiences and activities.

Elizabeth (Beth) Rogers

Worthington

Beth is an excellent troop leader and has encouraged adult leadership participation within her service unit. She led her service unit's day camp for two years and earned a 35-year membership guard for all her years with Girl Scouts both as a girl and adult volunteer. Her enthusiasm for all things Girl Scouts is clear. Beth is extremely dedicated to Girl Scouts, and most importantly to the girls.

Christina Sayre

Wooster

Christina is a dedicated member of the Highest Awards Review Committee. Even as a full-time college student, she makes the time to attend meetings fully prepared. Christina's time as a robotics mentor has encouraged many girls to explore STEAM on as many levels as they choose to thus enabling them to step into the idea of math and science as actual career and life paths. Christina's passion for Girl Scouting is a true example of the girl we aim to grow throughout our movement.

Kayla Shaddix

Friendship Trail

Kayla is a service unit cookie program coordinator and day camp volunteer. She is constantly looking for ways to encourage others to reach their goals and is continually brainstorming ways to make the Girl Scout Cookie Program more accessible to her service unit. She is often the initiator in planning events for the girls in her service unit and embodies what it means to be a true sister to every Girl Scout.

Julie Shockley

Morrow County

Julie is a troop leader for Troop 818, the secretary for her service unit, and helps find many activities for all troops in her service unit to be engaged in. She helped come up with her troop's cookie booth theme this year and has brought so many smiles to the Girl Scouts in her service unit.

Charity Simpkins

Tri-Trails

Charity has been co-leader for Troop 5937 for six years and has served as the troop cookie coordinator and fall product coordinator for all six. She is invaluable to her troop and service unit. She can always be counted on to go above and beyond to help whenever needed. She wants to make the world a better place and it shows in everything that she does.

Jessica Susil

Tippecanoe

Jessica volunteers by helping with Troop 2789 as well as her service unit. She has also served as a Girl Scout Daisy unit leader at day camp. Her willingness to help, the smile on her face, and her work ethic make her an amazing volunteer. She has the needed patience to work with younger girls and always steps up to help when needed.

Monica Swords

Mansfield

Monica is a troop leader for Troop 1104, council program volunteer, service unit event chair and fall product coordinator for her service unit. She assists with many recruitment events within her community and uses her creative and marketing skills to share Girl Scout programs anywhere she can. She is the first to try to help find a solution and encourages new ideas. She is an asset to any team and an inspiration to everyone she encounters.

Amy Szabo

Whetstone

Amy's passion for outdoor programming recently led her to her service unit's Camporee Committee where she has made an immediate impact. She helped the team find a location, assisted with paperwork, and helped with the event budget. She is also a troop leader for a troop of Girl Scout Daisies and is heavily involved in recruitment events. She is a breath of fresh air, and her enthusiasm is contagious.

Nichole Thompson

Big Walnut

Nichole has been a troop volunteer and co-leader for the past six years. She is engaged with the girls and not only leads them but helps them become their own person. Nichole has a great attitude and has shown amazing support to her troop and co-leader for many years. She is an engaging person and will always encourage those around her to face their fears.

Sally Tuskes

Harmony

Sally has been a troop leader for eight years and has been her service unit cookie program coordinator and fall product program coordinator for two. She has gone above and beyond to help the girls in her troop, service unit, and troop leaders in other service units. When helping fellow Girl Scouts and Girl Scout volunteers, she often refers to the Promise & Law as "that's what Girl Scouts do".

Andrea Wagener

Reynoldsburg

Andrea has been her service unit's cookie manager for over a decade and became the service unit manager for her service unit in 2019. She always assists first time cookie parents in the use of eBudde and the Girl Scout Cookie Program in general. As the service unit manager, Andrea does everything in her power to make sure leaders and troops are armed with the tools that they need to be successful.

She has been a leader for Troop 1234 and the Troop Cookie Coordinator for 23 years. She is also active with her service unit's activity team helping wherever she is needed. Rosie goes above and beyond all expectations in any position she holds. Her passion to be a sister to every Girl Scout is truly an inspiration.

Pamela (Pam) Eckhardt

Westerville

Pam recently stepped up to take over as service unit manager and has been awesome in helping to put troops together and following up with new leaders. She has also volunteered at day camp for many years. She leads an active service unit and is always on top of the details. Pam is a super positive motivator, is always ready with a smile and a laugh, and is gifted in handling multiple details and doing so with grace.

Leenita Elliott

Olentangy

Leenita is a troop volunteer for troop 479, a service unit cookie program coordinator and is currently her service unit's day camp coordinator. Leenita goes above and beyond to work with everyone that supports day camp and organizes materials to promote day camp throughout her community. Her support with day camp and the cookie program shows her dedication and skill.

Michele Fusek

Tri-Trails

Michele is a co-leader for troop 1234 and exemplifies what it means to use resources wisely. She has salvaged containers, jars, and other recycled items from neighbors and her community to help create craft projects. She has also donated many supplies from her own home to save the service unit and her troop a lot of money. Michele is always willing to lend a hand wherever needed. She is considerate and caring and is a sister to every Girl Scout.

Tammy Gray

Wal-Tus-Gum

As a Girl Scout troop leader Tammy has come up with many creative ideas for girls within her service unit. Recently she came up with a Stellar Seller event where girls ride in a limo and attend a dinner in celebration of their efforts in the Cookie Product Program. Tammy is always coming up with ways to make sure the girls love Girls Scouts, and always puts the girls first.

Kristina (Kris) Heller

Big Walnut

Kris volunteers as a troop leader for a Daisy Girl Scout troop and is the service unit manager. She is also an alternate delegate for council. She is extremely organized, always willing to help girls and other volunteers, and serves as a role model for all. Kris has courage, confidence, and character. She always puts her skills to work helping to keep her service unit strong and growing.

Misty Hollingshead

She never misses a service team meeting or service unit meeting and ensures things run smoothly through attendance recording. Ellen runs an amazing nature program at day camp that the girls can't wait to visit every year. In the past she has served as a council delegate among many other positions. Ellen is always willing to help when needed and is a treasure to her service unit and the council.

Eileen Day

Harmony

Eileen has been a registered Girl Scout for 54 years and has spent 31 of them as a troop leader. Over the years she has volunteered at day camp and has served as her service unit's treasurer and co-manager among many other incredible contributions. Eileen and her co-leaders have different talents so they share the responsibilities to lead an active troop that is strong and on time. By now she has shared experiences with many, many girls including her two daughters and granddaughter! Eileen has led many service unit events, programs, activities and camporees. She has helped to plan and support many travel experiences for Girl Scout Seniors and Ambassadors including explorations to New Zealand, Australia, and Hawaii. Eileen has a true love of sharing Girl Scouting with the world!

Tara Dean

Morrow County

Tara is an incredible volunteer who currently serves as a council delegate, service unit manager, service unit cookie program coordinator, fall product program coordinator among many other things. Tara does a wonderful job keeping girls engaged and participating as they get older. As the service unit manager, she leads service unit team meetings, delegates responsibilities, and takes time to guide new troop leaders to make their experience fun and successful. Tara is a true sister to every Girl Scout.

Connie Ison

Indian Rock

Connie is a long time Girl Scout volunteer. She works with her service unit and is a day camp volunteer for Camp Molly Lauman. Throughout the years Connie has assisted in the foundation of new troops and is always willing to help at service unit programs - where she can often be found as the head of a committee. Connie also holds leadership and outdoor training for council. Connie has also served as a council delegate and frequently goes above and beyond for her service unit and the council.

Teresa Lewis

Tippecanoe

Teresa is co-manager for her service unit as well as the service unit cookie program coordinator. She also serves as a day camp director, helps plan service unit events and more. She is very hands on with day camp helping in everything from recruitment of volunteers, daily schedules, and implementing activities. Teresa is always willing to help whether it is with the service unit or assisting another troop. She goes above and beyond what is expected of her and is a wonderful Girl Scout.

Donna Lunsford

Tecumseh

Donna has been a Girl Scout for 30 years and has been an incredible Girl Scout volunteer. She is the lead of her service unit's engagement team, working directly with their membership manager for recruitment of girls and volunteers. She has helped to plan, lead, and coordinate multiple events and experiences including Camp S'more Fun, World Thinking Day, and more. Donna has enormous energy and a go-getter attitude. She loves Girl Scout traditions and enjoys teaching them to new Girl Scouts every year.

Bobbie Jo McCarty

Rocky Fork
