Sign up to participate. Every Girl Scout needs a caregiver to sign the permission slip and select their rewards here: go.gsoh.org/fall-permission.

2

Think Like an Entrepreneur. Set goals for what rewards you want to achieve and what skills you want to practice. Decide which of your friends and family you want to contact and why they will want to help you meet your goals, then plan how you will share your Girl Scout story!

Use your order card to learn about the Fall Product Program products and prices. Practice sharing your favorites and encouraging customers to donate to local food assistance efforts through Care to Share.
